Forecast for Sunday 30 Oct 2022

Weather: A windy night but mainly dry with a few clear spells, cloud thickening around dawn and mist forming in places. Some drier and brighter weather on Sunday morning but showers developing and moving across the area, showers may be heavy with a risk of thunder and showers may band together at times to give a longer spell of rain. Showers mostly dying out in the evening.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 70% some lower cloud associated with passing showers.

Low cloud and visibility: Good visibility in general but any heavier showers will cause a temporary dip, a thunderstorm may cause visibility to be very poor for a time. Scattered cloud layers above 500m are likely at times especially around southern areas and showery conditions.
